Weather Report.
Weather Department.
 OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,
 WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13.
 SYNOPSIS FOR TWENTY-FOUR HOURS.

The barometer has risen slightly at the Pacific and the Rocky Mountains, with partially cloudy weather and fresh local winds. The pressure has generally increased east of the Rocky Mountains, with a tendency to diminish on the lower lakes. Thus far the lowest pressure, which was Wednesday evening in the northwest, is now central over Lake Huron. The temperature has fallen north and west of Wisconsin, and has risen on the Middle and east Atlantic coasts. Southwesterly winds have generally prevailed during the day, but easterly winds have set in this afternoon on the Middle and east Atlantic coasts, and rain fell last night in North Carolina and Tennessee, and cloudy or threatening weather is now reported from Virginia southward. Partially cloudy weather has elsewhere very generally prevailed.

Probabilities.
 It is probable that partially cloudy and clear weather will very generally prevail on Friday east of the Mississippi. No serious disturbances are apprehended for the lakes, and the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

Orange Celebration at Quebec.

QUEBEC, Ont., July 13.
 The celebration on the 12th of July was confined to an individual display. There were emblems and a dinner given last evening at the Masonic Hall by the members of the Orange Lodge in honor of the day. A great deal of excitement prevails about the riots in New York, but otherwise everything is quiet.

MONTREAL, July 13.

The New England Press Association received the hospitality of the city by the Mayor on the part of the corporation. The Fire Brigade paraded in honor of them. Conveyances were provided to the points of interest in the eastern part of the city.

OTTAWA, July 13.

The Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada is in session here. Grand Master Stevens delivered the annual address. A discussion is going on with reference to acknowledging the Quebec Grand Lodge.

The following anecdote has been associated with the name of a well-known clergyman's helpmate in the north of England. The minister had been entertaining at dinner a clerical friend from some distance. The evening was unpropitious, and the friend was invited to remain in the parlor to wait for the minister's return. The minister, who was in the study, was looking at a book when he heard the door open and saw the visitor enter. He looked up and saw the friend standing there. Water prophets predict a flood in the Ohio next year, because there was one in 1792, 1819, 1832, 1852—thus every 20 years. Shouldn't wonder.—Bellare Independent.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Alfred Hughes, formerly of this city, but now residing in Baltimore, is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

IN THE CITY.—Capt. Thos. Bogges, ex-Auditor of the State, reached the city last evening, and is stopping at the Grant House.

CALL EXTENDED.—A call to the pastorate of the Fourth Presbyterian Church in this city has been extended to Rev. Mr. Biggs, of Chillicothe, O. It is not known whether he will accept the call or not.

Mr. B. formerly had charge of the Presbyterian Church in Morgantown, and his ministrations were highly acceptable.

STATE CAMP MEETING.—Quite a number of our Methodist friends in the city went down to Moundsville yesterday, to select sites for tents at the approaching State camp meeting. We hear that the prospect for an increased number of tents this year, over last, is very promising.

The meeting is to commence on the 22d of August, and will continue ten days.

TO KEEP THE PEACE.—Frank Robinson was before Judge Johnston on a charge of breaking the peace. Robinson's offense consisted in threatening to kill Elias Holt. The testimony made out a pretty clear case against the accused, and he was required to give bond in the sum of one hundred dollars to keep the peace for one year. This he did, and was released from custody.

CIRCUIT COURT.—This court was in session but a short time yesterday morning. The only business of special interest transacted was the decision of His Honor on the application of A. C. Quarrier to be released on bail. The motion was refused on the ground that no good reason therefor had been presented.

Adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning, at which hour the Gas Company injunction case will probably be heard.

TO BE HEARD TO-DAY.—Counsel will be heard to-day by Judge Melvin, on the application made by the Gas Company to restrain the city from operating the gas works and collecting the revenue derived therefrom. The future session of the present term of the Circuit Court will probably be held in the City Buildings, as the Court of Appeals will occupy the Courthouse. The argument mentioned above will be made, it is said, in the Municipal Court room.

SUPREME COURT.—This Court met yesterday at 2 o'clock, P. M., in the court house. It being the first day of the term, under the rules no cases were called for argument.

In the case of Moore vs. Douglas and Woodward, upon a rule, the plaintiff appeared and filed his answer to the rule, and the further consideration of the case was continued until this morning. A rule was awarded against the appellant. A rule was awarded against the appellant. A rule was awarded against the appellant.

Adjourned until the usual hour to-day.

HOLD TO BAIL FOR APPEARANCE.—Isaac Louisa, it is alleged, took a fancy to a piece of calico measuring forty-two yards in length, the property of F. W. Blissett. Not caring to purchase it he conceived the idea, it is said, of getting possession of it clandestinely. This he accomplished; but his offense would not stay concealed. A warrant was issued for his arrest and placed in the hands of an officer. It was promptly executed, and yesterday the accused had an examination before Judge Johnston. The testimony was fully heard, and made a bad showing for Louisa's innocence. Judge J. required him to give bail in the sum of two hundred dollars for his appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court. He could find no bondsman and consequently was committed to jail.

NARROW ESCAPE.—The rider of Glencoe at the race, yesterday afternoon, had a narrow escape from being killed or seriously hurt. The first heat had just closed, and in checking up after passing the score, one of the stirrups of the saddle on which Glencoe's rider was sitting, gave way. In recovering from the sudden lurch to one side this gave him, he threw himself almost as far on the other. He succeeded, however, by a dexterous movement in regaining an upright position in the saddle, and brought his steed back to the stand in gallant style. A shudder ran through the crowd when the accident to the lad was observed. The agility he displayed in delivering himself from peril, and the manner in which he returned to the starting point with his high-mettled charger, were subjects of remark and admiration by spectators.

HISTORY.—The river was rising slowly yesterday. Foster's farm which was in condition to be grazed, Wednesday, (we saw several cows on it, that day) was entirely under water last evening. The Curtis came up from Sunfish, promptly, and returned at her usual hour.—It looks now as if the Hudson would get away Saturday, for Cincinnati.—The loading of the barge with railroad iron which we mentioned in yesterday morning's paper, was finished last evening, and we suppose the Camden left with her tow sometime during the night.—The rise in the river has not yet been sufficient to permit the Express and Conrier to re-enter the Parkersburg trade.—It is hoped that navigation will be fully resumed before the week closes.—We notice the new hull, whose arrival we chronicled several days since, has been towed to a point opposite Messrs. Sweeney & Co's engine works, and is now receiving her upper works and machinery.

THE RACES, YESTERDAY.

The attendance at the races, yesterday afternoon, was quite as large as could be expected, considering that it was the first day, and the threatening appearance of the clouds. The programme published in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER was rigidly followed, both as to the order of commencing operations, and the order in which the races should come off. All the horses entered were on the ground promptly, and were in excellent condition. About four o'clock there was a slight shower which effectively laid the dust on the track—not so much, however, as to render it muddy and heavy. Between heats, pool-selling was quite brisk in a building not far from the grand stand, and a considerable amount of money, we were told, changed hands when the results of the day's racing were announced.

The loss of a time card prevents us from giving the time made by each horse in the several races. We are, therefore, able to give the names of the winners only, which is about all that the general public cares to know. In the pacing contest, best three in five, Jenny Lind won the race, distancing the field on the third heat. The two preceding heats had resulted in favor of the Indiana Colt—time 2:37, 2:39. The third and last heat was hotly contested, but Jenny Lind left all her competitors far in the rear, and made it in 2:40.

The running race, best two in three, was won in two straight heats by Bell Price, Bayswater coming in second, Jim Burley, third—Glencoe being discontinued on the second heat. For the reason above mentioned, we cannot give the time made.

Sorrel Dan, Spotted Johnny and Joe Moore were entered for the trot, best 3 in 5. After several ineffectual attempts to get away, a good "send off" was finally accomplished. It soon became apparent that the contest was to be between the two first named. Both reached the score at the close of the first heat with no appreciable difference in favor of either. The judges announced it a "dead heat." The next three were won in succession by Spotted Dan in 2:46, 2:51, 2:53.

This closed the first day's programme. It was nearly seven o'clock before the end was reached, and the crowd returned to the city, gratified with the peaceful and orderly character of the afternoon's proceedings.

We give the entries for this day's races: Purse No. 4.—trot—W. Stewart enters br. g. Sleepy Dan; T. J. Woodmansee, br. g. Joe Moore; J. F. Reynolds, b. g. Fleet-foot.

Purse No. 5.—running—Dan Hughes enters br. m. Bell Price; E. Robinson, s. Bayswater; J. F. Reynolds, s. g. Jim Burley; R. W. Hodgins, s. g. Billy Maloy.

Purse No. 6.—trot—William Stewart enters g. g. Silver Slide; Jones B. Wiley, s. g. Scroggins; W. H. Crawford, s. g. Sorrel Dan.

POLICE COURT.—The case of James Brown, charged with obstructing Second Ward Market, was partially heard yesterday morning. It will be remembered that it had come up for trial at Tuesday's session, but was continued until yesterday for a satisfactory reason. At the second attempt to investigate the charge, the testimony for the city only was heard.—Mr. Brown's witnesses not being present. He asked for another continuance until this morning to enable him to secure the attendance of parties to testify in his behalf. His request was granted.

Sarah Jackson, alias "Dublin Tricks," was arrested on the charge which has been so often preferred against her. The testimony was brief but clear, and the result of the investigation was the usual fine for such an offense—ten dollars and costs. The defendant asked to be released from the payment of the sum, and promised to leave the city instant if her request was granted. His Honor replied that he would do so if she would go and never return. We do not know whether she accepted the amendment or not.

PLEASANT OCCASION.—Last evening on the invitation of Mrs. S. Ott, a number of her children and friends assembled at her residence on Fourth street to be present and witness the opening of four splendid buds of a Night-Blooming Cereus, from the conservatory of Sam'l. Laughlin, Esq. About nine o'clock the flowers were fully open, and were the admiration of the company. To say that they were beautiful and their fragrance sweet and delicious, gives one who did not see them and enjoy the delightful perfume but a faint idea of the reality.

After all present had looked at and admired these choicest flowers in the floral kingdom, refreshments were served and an hour passed in a pleasant, social way. Shortly after ten o'clock the guests of Mrs. O. began to take their departure, highly gratified with the rare treat they had enjoyed.

MEN'S BASE BALL SHOES only $1.00 at Forgy & Clemens.

SKIFF SUNK.—Last evening two lads got into a skiff near the steamer Courier, at the foot of Quincy street. The boat was not seaworthy, but the boys thought they could keep it above water. They had not proceeded far before it began to fill rapidly. One of the party leaped out and swam ashore, leaving the other in the boat. He remained on board until it was completely filled, when he too deserted the craft and made his way to land. Subsequently they went where the waterlogged boat was lying, and by dint of hard work succeeded in landing it near the point of departure.

BEFORE JUSTICE LAUNDER.—Mrs. Pult was brought before Justice Launder, yesterday, on a warrant issued out by Mrs. Samuel Williams, charging her with disorderly conduct, in using loud and abusive language on the street. After a hearing, the case was disposed of by requiring the defendant to pay the costs, and give bond in the sum of fifty dollars to keep the peace for six months.
